

Variety	Fruit Size & Colour	Mature Height	Characteristics	Productivity	Suckering	Harvest
Honeywood 	16mm berries with 9-15 berries/cluster. Deep blue when ripe. Full tangy flavor	2.5m (8')-upright & spreading	Blooms a few days later than other varieties. Avoids spring frost. Possibly resistant to powdery mildew. Sask. selection	Very productive and precociously fruitful	Low	Fruit ripens somewhat unevenly. Matures later
JB30 Exclusive to PPS 	Up to 15mm or more. Deep blue when ripe. Exceptional flavor	3.5m (12') - upright & spreading	Average bloom time. Highest shoot growth - 21.4cm. Sask. selection	Consistently high production	Low	Very uniform ripening within cluster.
Martin 	14mm or more. Deep blue when ripe. Excellent flavor.	3m (10') - round bush	Average bloom time. Thiessen parentage. Sask. selection	Consistently high productivity	Moderate	Very uniform ripening within cluster.
Smoky 	Up to 14mm or more. 7-11 / cluster. Sweetest cultivar; good, mild flavor.	2-2.5m (6-8') upright & spreading	Flowers in the middle of saskatoon bloom period helping to avoid spring frost. Very common variety, quickly forms hedge, Northern Alberta selection.	Consistently high pollination rate resulting in good production	High	Very uniform ripening within cluster
Thiessen 	Up to 17mm or more. 6-12 / cluster. Deep blue when ripe. Good flavor.	4m (14') - round bush	Blooms earlier than other varieties which make it more susceptible to spring frosts. Fruit flavored amount food processors. Sask. selection	High productivity	Moderate	Ripens somewhat unevenly resulting in a longer harvest. Ideal for U Pick.